

"NOODLES" FAGIN, WHO ENTERTAINS STATE JOURNAL CARRIERS AND NEWSBOYS AT THE NOVELTY TONIGHT

Representatives from practically every business and profession in the city will be present at the special "Noodles" Fagin show at the Novelty theater tonight. These state men of affairs are ever on the lookout for a chance to forget the worries that come in the daytime and after spending a half hour listening to "Noodles" at their Rotary club meeting Thursday, they unanimously voted to accept an invitation to join the State Journal's party this evening.

While the regular bill will be shown during the second show tonight, special features will be added. The most important announcement is that Fagin, equally brilliant as a publicity agent or footlight comedian, will lengthen his turn.

Other extra numbers will include turns by the "newsies" and—but these special features are on the "Q. T." until after the second show commences tonight.

"Noodles" Fagin, who is a guest of the State Journal, is the most widely known newsboy of the world and one of the most unique performers in vaudeville, is playing this week at the Novelty theater. Packed houses greeted him last night at both shows. His songs, "What a Wonderful Story You'd Be" made a big hit. "Noodles" is assisted by Paxton Fagin. It is an up to date comedy act with miles of laughs.

"Noodles" Fagin comes to Topeka with the personal endorsement of President Wilson, who saw him in Washington. President Wilson wrote him a letter thanking him for the work he is doing among the boys and youths of the country, and told him he hoped he would carry his message to every child in the United States.

U. P. VS. FARMERS

Railroad Files Suits Against Shawnee Co. Ruralists.

To Recover Part of Right-of-Way Occupied by Defendants.

This afternoon the Union Pacific railroad filed five suits in the district court, in Shawnee county, to regain possession of land from farmers who have been using what the railroad claims to be a part of its right of way. Defendants in today's suits are: C. H. Goodwin, Emma J. Goodwin, William E. Scott, Alonzo Townsend and Una Jamieson, all owners of land adjoining the Union Pacific right of way.

Seventy of similar suits have been filed in the last few months all through the state by the railroads. The Union Pacific obtained its right of way through Kansas under an act of congress. Then farmers living along the strip of ground began farming the unused parts. The statute provides that the land must be reclaimed inside of 15 years from the time this act was passed or the land reverts to the farmers.

The suits are filed, according to attorneys for the railroad, so that the land may not be lost. The suits also ask the recovery of a sum of money from the defendants for use of the land since they have been farming it.

FOR ALL WHO LABOR

Industrial Council Will Hold an Open Meeting at Labor Hall Tonight.

Everyone who labors, whether he belongs to a union or not, is welcome to a meeting of the Topeka Industrial Council to be held tonight at Labor hall, 418 Kansas avenue. There will be speeches and readings and after the program there will be a supper. It is intended to be a big open meeting at which laboring people will have an opportunity to enjoy themselves and hear of the benefits of organization.

The speakers will be J. H. Klein, president of the Carpenters union; E. W. Rankin, advertising manager of the Mail and Brezer; John T. Smith, secretary of the Missouri Federation of Labor. Local unions will also have speakers. Miss Clara Belle Banta of Topeka will read several selections.

The Industrial Council is anxious to have all who attend the meeting. The doors will be open and there will be a welcoming hand for everyone.

TABLE TALK AT THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

A meeting will be held at the Commercial club tonight and a date set for a convention of employers from over the state. Henry Bennett, contractor; Frank Brooks of the Capital Iron Works and W. P. Astell of the Topeka Transfer & Storage company, comprise a committee to make arrangements. It is probable that if enough employers from over the state attend the convention an organization will be formed to protect them in various matters pertaining to the employment of men and women.

H. S. Putney, president of the automobile association, has called a meeting of the organization at the Commercial club tonight.

W. W. Webb, president of the club, announced today that the auditorium committee is making an estimate on the cost of enlarging the building. Some trouble has arisen relative to purchasing the lots east of the auditorium and while it is believed an amicable agreement can be reached with property owners, it may be necessary for the city to condemn the lots.

Irmi Zornwald, editor of the Bonner Springs Chief and an assistant to L. T. Hussey, state fire marshal, was a guest at luncheon today.

The executive committee of the Methodist church held its regular monthly meeting and banquet at the Commercial club today. Members of the committee are: The Rev. Benjamin Young, E. L. Copeland, J. R. Abrahamson, F. H. Laughlin, E. F. Keeler and Charles S. Elliott.

The fellow who isn't willing to take a chance has no good reason to complain about his luck.

But there is no occasion for
